SCHOOL DISTRICT LEGAL STATUS

The legal basis for public education in the school district is vested in the will of the people as expressed in the Wisconsin Constitution. Public education is primarily a state responsibility and a local school district's function.

The official name of this school district is the "Dodgeland School District". It is organized under the common school district plan as provided in the laws of the State of Wisconsin. The School Board has authority and responsibility for the operation of the public schools by authority in the statutes.

The District shall be under the management and control of an elected school board, which will act as an agent of the state and govern the public schools in accordance with state law.
